

Alston and the South Tyne - There are fine views over the valley of the South Tyne to the enveloping stark moorlands on offer during this 6¼-mile (with 475ft of ascent) YELLOW walk commencing from Alston Station, CA9 3JB. The first part of the walk follows the Pennine Way past the striking Roman fort of Epiacum and on to Kirkhaugh. The return leg is along the South Tyne Trail, a footpath that runs alongside the track of the South Tynedale Railway back to Alston.

