Teesdale & High Force [Saturday 2nd March] - The River Tees is a river of contrasts beginning its life on the isolated flanks of Cross Fell and entering the North Sea surrounded by industry. Commencing from Bowlees Visitor Centre, DL12 0XE the 9-mile [BLACK] clockwise route (involving 987ft of ascent) will visit the equally spectacular Wynch Bridge, Low Force, High Force, Bleabeck Force & Gibson's Cave. The return is on little-used paths and byways along the north side of the valley and is equally enjoyable. There are several options to shorten this walk should this prove necessary. An alternative 7.5-mile [BLACK] anti-clockwise walk (involving 850ft of ascent) includes two fine waterfalls, pleasant rural surroundings, two fine examples of public art and a return across open country to the small village of Holwick. Anne Marie Forster & Kishor Raichura kindly used their cars as Club Organised Transport to take Ania Retkowska, Evelyn Brown, Kevin Nelson & Lyn Boyle to Bowlees to meet up with Lynn Ford & Ronnie Willison.

Patterdale Long Weekend/Week - Saturday 16th March - Ian Storey, Natalie Goodman, Ian Goodman, Carol Lonsdale, Mike Morrison, Liz Beech & Paul Gertig spent an enjoyable three nights in the chalets on the magnificent Patterdale Hall Estate. Lynn Ford, Ronnie Willison, Lyn Boyle, Neil Waite, Anne Marie Forster & Claire O'Sullivan opted to spend seven nights in a Lodge. This 300-acre private estate is located in the breath-taking Ullswater valley, wrapped around the southern tip of Ullswater, England's most beautiful lake. Ideally located at the foot of some of Lakeland's most magnificent and scenic mountains (Place Fell, St Sunday Crag, Helvellyn, High Street) and, at the same time, for exploring by car the whole of the Lake District as it is within a short drive of Penrith, Keswick, Windermere, Ambleside, Bowness and Kendal.

Runswick Bay & Staithes Coastal Walk [Saturday 6th April] - Runswick Bay is one of the most attractive villages on the North Yorkshire coast and a paradise for artists and photographers. Its cottages perch randomly and almost precariously on a series of hillside terraces above the beach and the streets are little more than narrow passageways and flights of steps, which continually open up new vistas as they twist and turn between the close-packed buildings. Both Runswick Bay and Staithes are highly individual coastal villages: the former a picturesque jumble of cottages above a fine sandy beach, the latter an old harbour beside a steep-sided inlet, still with a strong Victorian atmosphere. The first half of the suggested clockwise 8½ mile (with 646ft of ascent) BLACK walk from Runswick Bay Bank Bottom car park (TS13 5HT) to Staithes goes inland, following an attractive route across fields, by farms and through woodlands. The return journey is along a memorable stretch of the North Sea coast which affords spectacular views throughout. The route can easily be extended to 14 miles (with 1130ft of ascent) by adding an optional RED walk along the disused railway track-bed to both Kettleness and Goldsborough with a return to Runswick Bay being made both via the spectacular cliff-top and finally Runswick Sands (tide permitting). Paul Gertig & Dek Parmley kindly used their cars as Club Organised Transport in order to take Ania Retkowska, Evelyn Brown, Anne Beryl, Kevin Nelson & Lyn Boyle to Runswick Bay to meet up with Theresa Costello, Doris Cairns, Ellen Morrison, Mike Morrison & David Ellerington.

Chop Gate [Saturday 27th April] - Alan Ross, Evelyn Brown, Anne Beryl, Dek Parmley, Alfie Cowell, Ania Retkowska, Lynn Ford, Ronnie Willison, Theresa Costello & Ken Johnson travelled on the Denton Travel Services' minibus to Chop Gate from where an exciting choice of three walks were on offer:

Three Dales to Botton Head - This is a demanding though rewarding 13-mile (with 2077ft of ascent) RED anti-clockwise walk on the quiet side of the Cleveland Hills from Chop Gate into the isolation of Tripsdale and Bransdale. Classic inscriptions will intrigue the scholar, as will the many boundary stones and crosses lining the ancient walkways to Botton Head. A way-marked journey, this route provides endless joyous miles of distant and alluring views.

Trennet and Cold Moor - Moorland tramps can be, at times, just that! Not so this classic Cleveland Hills high moors and ridgeway 7-mile (with 1407ft of ascent) PURPLE clockwise walk from Chop Gate above Bilsdale and through seldom visited Raisdale. With interest and challenge running a close second to the constantly changing vistas, this walk in the steps of the miner, quarryman and pannierman, is best appreciated when the views are distant.

Cold Moor and Urra Moor - This 9-mile (with 1605ft of ascent) BLACK clockwise walk explores the exposed moorlands of the Cleveland Hills near the head of Bilsdale. From Chop Gate, it climbs over Cold Moor to the northern edge of the Cleveland escarpment. After turning east along a section of the Cleveland Way, it heads southwards along the edge of the barren Urra Moor before a descent back into Bilsdale. Not only are the panoramas expansive, they are also varied, with glimpses of urban and industrialised Teeside in the distance contrasting with the sparsely populated gentleness of Bilsdale and the severity and bleakness of the surrounding high moorland.

Borrowdale [Saturday 8th June] - Borrowdale is a gem of a valley with Derwentwater the sparkling diamond, its coronet numerous summits on offer. Beyond Derwentwater the valley is squashed into the 'jaws', a narrow defile, where river, woods and hills create a perfect vision of Lakeland landscape. A little further the Borrowdale valley flattens and valley broadens, the head of the valley being split by craggy fells backed by the dark half-dome of Great End. The suggested 9½ mile BLACK walk (with 2743 of ascent) will include visits to the summits of both Glaramara (2,570ft) and Allen Crag (2,580ft) and descends to Seatoller via Styhead Tarn and Styhead Gill. The walk may be shortened if a return to Seatoller is made via Grains Gill. An alternative 8½ mile linear lower-level RED route (with 1505ft of ascent) to Keswick visits Rosthwaite, Watendlath, Surprise View, Ashness Bridge, and Walla Crag. Evelyn Brown, Anne Berryl, Alfie Cowell, Anne Marie Forster, Alan Ross, Dek Parmley, Lynn Ford, Ronnie Willison, Claire O'Sullivan, Neil Waite, David Ellerington, Ania Retkowska, Kay Costello & Theresa Costello travelled on the Denton Travel Services' minibus.

Dunmail Raise to Ambleside [Saturday 6th July] - Dunmail Raise was the scene of a bloody Dark Age battle for control of Cumbria between King Dunmail, the last King of Cumbria, and the combined forces of the Saxon king Edmund I and Malcolm, the King of Scots. Taking advantage of the 781ft pass, this is the start of a suggested 8-mile linear BLACK route (with 2552ft of ascent) to Ambleside via the summits of Fairfield (2864ft), Hart Crag (2697ft), Dove Crag (2600ft), High Pike (2152ft) & Low Pike (1667ft). A lower-level 7.1-mile linear RED route (with 1312ft of ascent) to Troutbeck via Wansfell Pike (1581ft), Stockghyll Force waterfall, Ambleside & Skelghyll Wood is also highly recommended and offers spectacular views of Lake Windermere. Evelyn Brown, Margaret Andison, Ailie Langston, Kay Costello, Alan Ross, Cath Fatkin, Anne Marie Forster, Lynn Ford, Ronnie Willison, Theresa Costello, Helen Costello, Alfie Cowell, Dek Parmley & Jake Kirsopp travelled on the Denton Travel Services' minibus to Kirkstone Pass.

Haweswater [Saturday 7th September] - At the head of Haweswater, the road comes to an abrupt end. In this remote corner of Lakeland, nature's wares are laid out in perfect harmony. Those who love wander in these wild and craggy places cannot fail to find here a variety of scenery to suit their taste. The classic sculpturing of Blea Water corrie contrasts sharply with the lonely, pathless fells to the east of Haweswater. The mountain pass of Nan Bield, linking Mardale and Kentmere, is the most captivating in Lakeland. This sentinel stands guard over Blea Water's smaller, but no less delightful neighbour, Small Water. The suggested 8.6-mile circular BLACK route (with 2,818ft of ascent) ascends via Kidsty Pike to visit the summits of Rampsgill Head, High Street, Mardale Ill Bell and Harter Fell, before descending via Gatesgarth Pass to return to Mardale Head. The distance can be reduced to 7.4-miles and the ascent to 2,333ft by missing out Harter Fell and descending via Nan Bield Pass. An alternative 7.2-mile low level RED route (with 433ft of ascent) follows the western shore of Haweswater to the tiny village of Burnbanks and onto the village of Bampton, which has a community pub, The Mardale Inn. Anne Marie Foster, Neil Waite, Evelyn Brown, Anne Berryl, Jake Kirsopp, Theresa Costello, Helen Costello, Alfie Cowell, Ania Retkowska, Roger Smith, Ronnie Willison, Lynn Ford, Margaret Andison, Ian Thomson, David Ellerington & Kishor Raichura travelled on the Denton Travel Services' minibus to Haweswater.

Honister Pass to Buttermere [Saturday 5th October] - The long ridge of high land separating Ennerdale from Buttermere is uniformly dull on its Ennerdale flanks and largely given over to conifer plantations, but the northern slopes are as exciting as the southern ones are boring. Here the retreating ice took great bites from the ridge, exposing sharp edged glacial combs buttressed by fine crags where ravens soar - this is classic fell walking country offering a procession of uplifting views. High Stile is the centre piece of a magnificent fell massif abruptly looming over Buttermere - brazen with all the finest qualities of the Lakeland mountain-form, and yet quite unique. The suggested 7½-mile BLACK linear route (with 2717ft of ascent) includes four delectable summits (Haystacks 1990ft, High Crag 2443ft, High Stile 2644ft & Red Pike 2479ft). An early descent made from Haystacks (Wainwright's favourite mountain) via Scarth Gap Pass shortens the walk to 6 miles with only 1411ft of ascent. The grand show of rugged and majestic fells commanding attention on the north side of the Buttermere valley may be a delight to the casual traveller along the dale road, but for the best effect one needs elevation! Commencing from Honister Pass, the suggested 6-mile RED linear route (with 2060ft of ascent) provides just that with visits to the summits of Dale Head 2470ft, Hindscarth 2390ft & Robinson 2420ft. Helen Costello, Theresa Costello, Dek Parmley, Alfie Cowell, Lynn Boyle, Margaret Andison, Gordon Stephenson, Evelyn Brown, Jake Kirsopp, Anne Beryl, Cath Fatkin, Kevin Nelson, Ian Thomson, Lynn Ford, Ania Retkowska & Paul Gertig travelled on the Denton Travel Services' minibus to Honister Pass.

A shorter route of 9.7 miles returning from Redmire. The walk starts in Leyburn and heads west along the Leyburn Shawl Walk to Preston-under-Scar then on to the historic 14th century Castle Bolton. Heading south east to the village of Redmire then on to Wensley and back to Leyburn. Evelyn Brown, Ania Retkowska & Ronnie Willison kindly used their cars as Club Organised Transport in order to take Anne Berryl, Cath Fatkin, Ian Thomson, Alan Ross, Lucy Topping & John Costello to Leyburn where they met up with Mike Morrison.

Ingram Valley/Cheviots [Saturday 30th November] - The River Breamish trickles into life south of Scotsman's Knowe on the remote slopes of Cairn Hill, an outlier of the mighty Cheviot. The narrow, upper reaches of the Breamish Valley are flanked by an 'avenue' of steep sided hills, including Cushat Law, Shielcleugh Edge, High Cattle and Shill Moor. The Salter's Road, an ancient trade route across these wild northern hills, cuts through the peaceful valley as it twists and turns its way to the Scottish border. The heather moors, way above the valley floor, stretch out towards the 'Premier League' heights of Hedgehope Hill, Comb Fell and a more distant Cheviot. Both suggested walks start from Hartside in Ingram Valley. The suggested 13-mile circular BLACK 'clockwise' route (with 2310ft of ascent) visits Little Dod, Cushat Law & Bloodybush Edge before dropping down to the River Breamish via The Salter's Road. The route back to Hartside visits High Cattle, Rig Cairn & the beautiful Linhope Spout. The suggested lower level 7.6-mile circular RED 'anti clockwise' route (with 1348ft of ascent) visits Linhope Spout, Rig Cairn & High Cattle Cattle before returning to Hartside along The Salter's Road via Low Bleakhope, Low Bleakhope and Alnhammor. This is epic Cheviot high-level walking across windswept summits and vast, faraway views. Ania Retkowska kindly used her car as Club Organised Transport in order to take Anne Marie Forster & Steve Wilkinson to Hartside where they met up with Ian Goodman, Natalie Goodman, Dek Parmley, Kay Costello, Gordon Stephenson & Margaret Andison.

The Club have been prepared to encourage the use of Denton Travel minibus for Club events by subsidising fares as minibuses leave a significantly lower carbon footprint per passenger than any other form of public transport. However, a lack of bookings resulted in the cancellation of two Saturday event with the remaining six events going ahead but requiring a total subsidy of £410 out of Club funds.

Membership - currently stands at 53 which represents an increase of 2 members since 2023.

Finances - As you will see from the above, your Club made an operating loss of £176.66 over the course of 2024. When deducted from the £4512.90 balance carried forwards from 2023, this means that the Club now has £4338.24.

In Conclusion - I am, as always, indebted to Ania Retkowska (Assistant Secretary) and the Club Committee members for their ongoing individual and collective contribution towards the organisation of Club events. In conclusion may I, on behalf of the Committee, take this opportunity of thanking you for your support of the Club in 2024 as we look forward to the Club's 42nd year of events in 2025.
