

Hexham New Year Walk [Sunday 2nd January] – if you want to clear your head with a local low level walk please meet up either at the Civic Centre car park at 9am, where a car sharing scheme will operate, OR at the Tyne Green County Car Park in Hexham next to the River Tyne at 9:30am.

Leave the Tyne Green County Car Park in Hexham next to the River Tyne. Follow the south shore of the river via Spital Lane and cross Warden Bridge next to the Boatside House (PH). Pass under railway bridge, take path to Quality Row Cottages and then onto the summit of High Warden. After visiting Fourstones, cross the railway line and follow riverside path back to Warden Bridge.

Hadrian's Wall [22nd January] – A walk from Walltown car park eastwards alongside Hadrian's wall to Great Chesters fort (Aesica built in AD 128), with splendid views from a stretch of wall that includes some of the nine nicks of Thirlwall. After following the Roman Vallum, the route crosses the B6318 and visits Wrytree coal mine before arriving at Greenhead Church (built in 1827). After visiting Thirlwell Castle (built in 1306) the route passes Low Old Shields (the oldest settlement in the area) before returning to Walltown via Carvoran (a Stanegate Fort which older than Hadrian's Wall).

Roseberry Topping [19th February] Adventurous hillwalkers will experience that familiar tingle when the man made hound's tooth of Roseberry Topping appears above Newton under Roesberry. It offers instant access and views par excellence prior to a stimulating hill, forest and moorland circuit via Little Roseberry, the Hanging Stone (a weathered mass of sandstone 886ft) and the challenging acres of Great Ayton Moor.
